

International Conference «Engineering Management of Communication and Technology» (EMCTECH)

SPONSORSHIP BROCHURE

Dear Colleagues,

We are glad and proud to welcome you in the International Conference «Engineering Management of Communication and Technology» (EMCTECH). More than 100 participants are expected from all over the world, including representatives of commercial companies, scientific organizations or educational institutions. EMCTECH Conference has successful history and sponsored by IRIS Association (Institute of Radio and Information Systems, Vienna, Austria).

Technology evolution opens novel opportunities to employ the technology in many businesses. The internet opened e-commerce and marketing and that also changed global marketing strategies as well as discovery of new application areas. The EMCTECH Conference will be attended by researchers, educators, managers, and students with conceptual, theoretical, or empirical contributions. They will document research activity, case studies or best practices, shedding light on the theory or practice of engineering, technology, innovation management, or development of personal skills, include technology papers focusing on the directions of technology that would be applied to business development and entrepreneurship.

Conference will produce a publication. All accepted and presented Papers following the conference will be submitted for inclusion into IEEE Xplore and will be submitted also for indexing in Scopus and Web of Science data bases.

A selection of sponsorship packages are being offered for your organisation's exposure at EMCTECH. They are briefly detailed below.

We will do our best to coordinate the time difference of speakers, and facilitate the engagement, interactions and idea-sharing among all the participants.

More detailed information on the virtual technical program and instructions of speakers will be posted on the EMCTECH website: <http://media-publisher.eu/conference-emctech/call-for-papers>.

In this brochure, you find all the relevant information regarding a sponsorship. You are more than welcome to ask for a specific request.

Please send proposals for sponsorship packages to the email address: IRIS@media-publisher.eu
